

Dear Holy Cross Parents,

Our school is a member of Artsonia.com (www.artsonia.com), the largest online student art museum. Artsonia showcases artwork from thousands of schools around the world. Artsonia's goals are to develop student's pride and self-esteem, increase their multicultural understanding through art and involve parents and relatives in student education and accomplishments.

I am writing to you to seek your permission for showcasing your child's artwork on the Holy Cross web gallery on Artsonia. The permission will cover their tenure at our school.

Please return the form below so that I may publish your child's artwork. This is a unique, safe and exciting educational opportunity for the students. Let's join the millions of other famous child artists on the Internet.

One of the features about being published on the Artsonia's Art Museum is that friends and family can leave a nice comment for the artist and become a fan club member of the artist. As a security feature, Artsonia requires the parent to pre-approve all comments before they are posted on the website. This is only one of the safety and privacy features on the website.

Artsonia sells products imprinted with the student art. Holy Cross will receive 20% of the sales made through the site.

Please call me with any questions or concerns at 204-9349.

God's Blessings,
Jennifer Walterscheid

Parental Permission Form:

I give my permission to display my child's artwork on Artsonia, in accordance with Artsonia's terms and conditions of use. Complete details can be found at www.artsonia.com/terms. I understand that Artsonia preserves students' privacy and anonymity by listing the artwork only under the student's first name and a number – last names are never revealed. I also understand that Artsonia will only display comments on student artwork with parental permission, and therefore grant Artsonia permission to email notifications to me when new comments are available for review. NOTE: This permission will cover the entire tenure of my child at Holy Cross.
