

Wild About Learning!

September 8, 2017

in Junior Kindergarten!

This Week

This week we started so many fun things. We began our first full religion unit that talks about creation. Allie Alligator came with the letter Aa. We visited number 1's house and shared one item with the class. Throughout the week the kids enjoyed learning some fun things about apples, painting with apples, and tasting different kinds of apples. We visited our first all-school chapel on Wednesday and had our picture taken with all the other kids in the school. Outside we have enjoyed some time riding on the tricycles.

On the Calendar

- Mrs. Kloke will be gone on Sept. 15th for a Learning Without Tears Training.
- Thurs., Sept. 21st is the Preschool Small Motor event from 6-7
- Friday, Sept 29 is the PTL Movie Night here at school
- There is no school on October 9-11 for the Professional Teachers Conference
- Parent/Teacher conferences are October 19th and 20th. Sign-up sheets will be outside the office in a few weeks.

Next Week

Monday, we will meet our second letter animal and go to preschool chapel.

Tuesday, we will visit number 2's house and hear his story. Please, bring 2 items or something that represents 2 on this day.

Wednesday, we will learn about the hidden apple star.

Thursday, we will have some fun with spiders and snakes.

Friday, Mrs. Kloke will be gone to a training. Mrs. Frager will be here and Mrs. Boss who taught our Junior Kindergarten class last year will substitute. She will have some snake fun to do with the kids and take them to the library.
