

February 2, 2018

Attendees -- Karen Boettcher, Max Burson, Andrew Campbell, Leah Davis, Eimi Flores, Kara Goering, Ann Harms, Sara Hayes, Steffannie Howlett, Cari Koster, Rachael Livernois, Kellie Newlin, , Joe Schubert, Sara Schubert, Christine Tuck, Andrea Woltjer (+ 5 future Eagles)

Handouts -- Budget, February agenda, Procedures for submitting PTL expenses

Opening/Devotion – 8:21 a.m. Cari Koster opened with a devotion about brotherly love. Love is a three-way street because of God’s involvement.

New Business:

Fun Night: Cari reported because Sarah Igartua wasn’t able to attend the meeting. The flyers have been attached to social media outlets, newsletters, as well as classroom doors, etc. Students will not receive individual fliers to take home due to printing costs. Chili feed will start at 6:00 p.m. Cari Koster is making the chili. Amanda Valliant is buying the fixings. The dessert auction will start at 6:30. Floods of volunteers have come forward to donate their baked items. Thank you! Games, crafts, dance will run from 7-9 p.m.

Spirit Week: February 12th is superhero day, February 13th is denim day, February 14th is school uniforms, and February 15th is Blue/White Spirit day. Information has been included in the newsletter.

Book Fair: Sales will run March 10-18. Delivery/set-up will be March 7th. Students/teachers will be able to tour the book fair on the 9th to make their wish lists. The theme is Sports due to March Madness and MLB Spring Training. There will be a coin challenge for the students. Proceeds from that will benefit the “All for Books” program. Books will be purchased for Cross Point School in TX who was affected by the hurricane. Clean up will be on March 19th. An on-line sign up for volunteers will be utilized.

Grandparents’ Day: 3/16/18 All students, Preschool-8th grade, will be involved in the program in some way (during chapel, opening program, band/music concert, etc.) Stephanie Lear is in charge of food; Teresa Walker is in charge of decorations. The theme is Dr. Sues.

Standing Committee Updates:

Spirit Nights: Chipotle night is Tuesday, February 6th from 4-8 p.m. We get 50% of the Holy Cross sales. The cheerleaders will be there to welcome and record students for the attendance challenge. February 27th is Jason’s Deli.

Budget: Steffannie Howlett—The check from Jason’s Deli was finally received. She thanked Ann Harms for all her hard work in following up with them over the past several months. The checks from Box Tops and Tyson were received. An e-mail address has been created specifically for the treasurer position. It is: hcls.ptl.treasurer@gmail.com

Teacher Requests:

- Mrs. Thomas -- Iditarod Ultimate Classroom Subscription as well as

February 2, 2018

classroom written materials ~$105 after tax, shipping

- Mrs. Drew – Big Money, magnetic coins, etc. ~$45, Tennis ball chair socks for desks to prevent desks from sliding around the classroom. ~$200.

Total requests ~$350. Leah Davis motioned, Andrea Woltjer 2nd. All approved.

Bake Sale: Kellie Newlin —Today’s treat was valentine Rice Krispy treats. She thanked all of her great bakers. She asked for suggestions for March. Someone suggested “anything green.” April will be Easter themed sugar cookies.

Room Parents: The next event will be the Valentine’s Day classroom parties. They will be on the 14th. The He Is Risen classroom parties will be on Tuesday, April 3rd.

Rewards program/Box Tops: We weren’t sure who had won the January collection. (Ada Marciniak wasn’t in attendance.) Mrs. Boettcher noted how often she sees students excitedly checking the graph in the hallway.

Other notes:

Mrs. Boettcher shared that 32,000 invitations for Open House were sent out to the community. The invitation is also on the Wichita Mom’s Blog. A video about Holy Cross Lutheran School will be shown at church on Sunday. Thanks to Mr. Drew for his help with the video.

Leah Davis will not be at the March meeting. She needs someone to volunteer to take minutes.

Please be thinking ahead about the PTL executive positions and committee chairs for the 2018-2019 school year.

9:01 Cari closed with prayer

Leah Davis—Secretary