OLD BUSINESS

Hat Fundraiser – Megan Klepacki (Tiny Trucker Co.) and Sara Schubert. 30-40 hats preordered. Invoice from Tiny Trucker Co. will be sent to Adrian Peppers and Liz. PTL will be purchasing ten extra youth hats to sell at $20 each. Kasey Quattlebaum motioned; Sara Schubert seconded; motion carried.

Parent-Teacher Conferences Teacher Lunches – Teachers each picked from Panera menu. Continue offering dairy-free option in the future.

Fall Festival – HCLS kids craft table made $300-$400. Leftover crafts will be sent with elders to shut-ins. Attendees liked seeing the kids involved.

NEW BUSINESS/UPCOMING EVENTS

Veteran's Day Assembly, Nov. 10 – Rachael Livernois purchased small American flags for all classes. PTL to provide Patriotic Rice Krispy treats. Jen Myers asking for help finding speakers for each age group. Various PTL members reaching out to military. Trying to get Big Riggs on site.

I55 Book Fair, Nov 13-21 – Judy Upendo passed around signup sheet. Lynette Bosch provided update. Located on stage this year. Needing volunteers to work shifts. Email will be sent to HCLS families with signup link: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/805044aabaf22a5ff2-i55book>

Teacher Christmas Luncheon, Dec. 7 – Jennifer Williams covering decorations. Need volunteer for coordinating food and teacher gift ideas. Mrs. Boettcher mentioned teachers always appreciate treats like popcorn and have previously suggested BBQ, Mediterranean or Mexican for meal ideas when asked. Possible food options mentioned: Bella Luna, Chipotle, College Hill Catering and Deli and Costco. Feeding approx. 55. Leah Davis, Megan Klepacki. and Rachael Livernois volunteered to help serve lunch and cover recess. More volunteers welcome.

Fun Night, Feb. 11 – Brittany K. needs co-coordinator. Discussed ideas including: dessert auction (Ann Harms volunteered to coordinate), bingo for younger kids, dance for older kids. Movie and pizza for kids, nice meal and auction for adults. Air bands. Not using classrooms; possibly utilize other church spaces for games. Separate Spirit Night fundraiser at roller skating rink suggested by Eimi Flores. Mrs. Boettcher polling middle school for input on their Fun Night activity and possible Spirit Night skate night.
