Bolt, Eimi Flores, Julie Seacat, Jenny Cline, Rachel Deutsch

Devotion/Prayer: Christina Dunleavy opened with a prayer & devotion. Introduction of the new board members.

Old Business/Reviews

Father/Daughter Dance: Sara Igarta & Rachel Deutsh reported it was a success and having the photo booth was a big hit; still waiting on final receipts. Dads request AC be turned on next year

Mother/Son Dodge Ball: Andrea Woltjer reported good attendance. It was suggested to keep one mother/son dodge ball event and to have something else – ideas: bowling, Great Plains Nature Center hike.

Administrative Assistant Day: Gift cards & flowers were given to the secretaries

Teacher Appreciation Week: (May 7-11) Due to field trips, movie day was today, May 4, 2018, for K-3. Friday, May 11 will be movie day for 4th-8th grade. Popcorn & water will be provided. The teachers & students were excited about splitting it.

Scholastic BOGO Book Fair: May 10-14 in school library. Christine Tuck said Tuesday, May 8, the books will be delivered and set up will begin at 2PM. Take down will be Tuesday, 14th between 9am and noon. The old bean bags will be given away to first-come buyers. As this is a BOGO event it is suggested to donate the book to either the library, a teacher, or donated.

Snow Cones: (May 18) Kona Ice $450 for K-8; preschool will have popsicles

Fall Fellowship: Date to be determined: Suggestion was made by Christina Dunleavy to replace movie night with a father/son activity like fishing or flying a kite and to add a mother/daughter activity like paint the town or ceramics.

Volunteers to Call new Families: Mrs. Boettcher asked for volunteers to call and invite families to the welcome night August 9th.

Standing Committee Updates:

Budget: Steffannie Howlett

Waiting on Receipts for Grandparents Day

Teacher requests

- Mrs. Dobler: Accelerated Reader Prizes $250: Christina Tuck will have Mrs. Dobler go through the trinkets sent for the book fair; also possible to use Scholastic Points to purchase prizes. It was suggested we allot $125 (non-recurring) for the purchase of prizes. Motion made by Cari Koster, seconded by Patti Scales, motion carried
